

Exam 4 Review Guide
US History 7
Exam date: 29th February 2008

Study: Sections 2 and 3 of chapter 8 and all of chapter 9 and chapter 10 section 1

* Chapter 8 was also measured on the last exam, but it will be assessed here again because it is an important topic and many students showed on the last exam that more study is needed.

Practice questions can be found online at JonesHistory.net within a week or so before the exam. (If you don't remember your access password, just log in as guest.)

Part I: Multiple-Choice

1. Branches of the Government
2. Checks and Balances
3. Amending the Constitution
4. Washington's Presidency
5. First Political Parties
6. John Adams' Presidency
7. Thomas Jefferson's Presidency

Part II: Short Answer

Sample Short Answer Questions

1. Summarize the debate between Federalists and Republicans.
2. Describe how the United States Congress is a compromise between the interests of large (populated) states and small states.
3. Why did the French Revolution divide Americans?
4. Explain why the election of 1800 is called a "revolution" by some historians.
5. What was Hamilton's plan to reduce the nation's debt? What was the opposition to it? How did he get it passed after all?