

Name _____

Topic or Chapter _____

INPUT

PROCESS

OUTPUT

Select the way(s) you choose to receive the information. Feel free to choose more than one. Check with the teacher on availability.

Select what you will do with the input that makes you learn it. The evidence for process is a product that helps you study.

Select how you will prove you have knowledge of the assigned topic.

Textbook

Cornell Format Notes

Reading

Historic Document(s)

 Book Report

DBQ

 Research project

Multiple-Choice Test

Textbook sections in audio format

Outline

Summary

Lecture / Teacher Presentation (pre-recorded, usually video)

History Frame

Writing

Thematic Essay

 Persuasive Essay

 Write Historical Fiction

Commercial Video (WARNING: Material in commercial videos may not include everything you need for the quiz. This option, when available, would be done to accompany another input option.)

Author's Questions (On average, around 90% of author's questions are typically on the author's quiz.)

Guided Reading (WARNING: On average, around 38% of material on the author's quiz may not be on the guided reading.)

Performing

 Debate

Interview test

 Five minute presentation

Video Essay

Research key curriculum questions provided by teacher.

Check here if Cooperative Learning

 Listening

Requires some learning outside the basic class material.*